

OPT OUT NOTICE FOR BAIRNSDALE REGIONAL HEALTH SERVICE GROUP MEMBERS

FEDERAL COURT OF AUSTRALIA

‘Doctors in Training’ (Unrostered Unpaid Overtime) Class Action (VID 210/2021)

1. Why is this notice important?

On 26 April 2021, the Australian Salaried Medical Officers Federation of Victoria (ASMOF) and a doctor (together, the Applicants) commenced a class action in the Federal Court of Australia against Monash Health (First Respondent) and Latrobe Regional Hospital (Second Respondent). In November 2022, Bairnsdale Regional Health Service (Third Respondent) was joined to this proceeding. The class action is brought by the Applicants on their own behalf and on behalf of other Doctors in Training (DIT) who it is alleged have worked unrostered and unpaid overtime while employed by the First, Second and/or Third Respondent.

The Federal Court has ordered that this notice be published for the information of persons who might be members of the class in respect of their employment with the Third Respondent on whose behalf the action is brought and may be affected by the action. You have been identified as a potential group member by virtue of your employment with the Third Respondent. You should read this notice carefully. Any questions you have concerning the matters contained in this notice should not be directed to the Court. If there is anything that you do not understand you should seek legal advice.

2. What is a class action?

A class action, also known as a ‘representative proceeding’, is an action that is brought by one or more persons (“Applicant(s)”) on his or her own behalf and on behalf of a class of people

(“group members”) against another person (“Respondent”) where the Applicants and the group members have similar claims against the Respondent.

Group members in a class action are not individually responsible for the legal costs associated with bringing the class action. In a class action, only the Applicants are responsible for the legal costs.

Group members are bound by the outcome in the class action, unless they have opted out of the proceedings. A binding result can happen in two ways being either a judgment following a trial, or a settlement at any time. If there is a judgment or a settlement of a class action, group members will not be able to pursue the same claims and may not be able to pursue similar or related claims against the Respondent in other legal proceedings. Group members should note that:

- (a) In a judgment following trial, the Court will decide various factual and legal issues in respect of the claims made by the Applicants and group members. Unless those decisions are successfully appealed, they bind the Applicants, group members and the Respondent. Importantly, if there are other proceedings between a group member and the Respondent, it may be that neither of them will be permitted to raise arguments in that proceeding which are inconsistent with factual or legal issue decided in the class action.
- (b) In a settlement of a class action, where the settlement provides for compensation to group members it may extinguish all rights to compensation which a group member might have against the Respondent which arise in any way out of the events or transactions which are the subject-matter of the class action.

If you consider that you have claims against any or all of the First, Second and Third Respondents which are based on your individual circumstances or otherwise additional to the claims that are described in the class action, then it is important that you seek independent legal advice about the potential binding effects of the class action before the deadline for opting out (see below).

3. What is this class action?

This class action is brought by the Applicants on their own behalf and on behalf of all persons who are “group members” as defined in the proceeding.

The Applicants allege in the statement of claim in this proceeding that since 27 April 2015 (in respect of the First Respondent and Second Respondent) and since 18 November 2016 (in respect of the Third Respondent) group members have, in the course of their employment with the First Respondent or Second Respondent or Third respondent, worked hours in excess of their ordinary hours or rostered hours and were not paid for those unrostered overtime hours.

The Applicants allege that the Respondents' failure to pay group members for their unrostered overtime hours is a breach of their obligations under the applicable enterprise agreements which include the Victorian Public Health Sector (AMA Victoria) – Doctors in Training (Single Interest Employers) Enterprise Agreement 2013 (2013 Agreement) applicable up to 6 August 2018, and from 7 August 2018 the AMA Victoria – Victorian Public Health Sector – Doctors in Training Enterprise Agreement 2018–2021 (2018 Agreement).

As a result of this breach, the Applicants allege that the Respondents has breached section 50 of the Fair Work Act 2009 (Cth) (FW Act).

4. What does 'opt out' mean?

The Applicants in a class action do not need to seek the consent of group members to commence a class action on their behalf or to identify a specific group member.

However, group members can cease to be group members by opting out of the class action. An explanation of how group members are able to opt out is found below in the section headed "How can you opt out of the proceeding."

5. Are you a group member?

You are a group member if, during the period between you were employed by either or all of:

Administrative under the 2013 Agreement or the 2018 Agreement);
 - iii. Registrar; and
 - (d) worked unrostered overtime for which you have not been paid.

6. Will you be liable for legal costs if you remain a group member?

You will not become liable for any legal costs simply by remaining a group member for the determination of the common questions. However, if a successful outcome is achieved, the Court may make orders requiring group members to contribute to legal costs incurred on behalf of the Applicants who have brought the class action.

7. What will happen if you choose to remain a group member?

Unless you choose to opt out of the class action, you will be bound by any settlement or judgment made in the class action. If the class action is successful, you will be entitled to share in the benefit of any order, judgment or settlement made in favour of the Applicants and group members. You may be required to satisfy certain conditions before your entitlement arises.

If the action is unsuccessful, you will not be able to pursue the same claims and may not be able to pursue related claims against the Respondent in other legal proceedings.

8. What group members need to do:

(a) How to remain a group member?

If you wish to remain a group member there is nothing you need to do at the present time. The Applicants will continue to bring the proceeding on your behalf up to the point where the Court determined those questions that are common to the claims of the Applicants and group members. However, you are invited to register as a group member with the Applicants' lawyers Gordon Legal. You can register at:

<https://doctorsclassaction.com.au> . When you register, Gordon Legal will provide you with up to date information about the progress of the class action.

(b) How to opt out?

If you do not wish to remain a group member, you must opt out of the class action.

If you opt out you will not be bound by, or entitled to share in, the benefit of any order, judgment or settlement in the class action, but you will be at liberty to bring your own claim against any of the Respondents, provided that you issue Court proceedings within the time limit applicable to your claim. If you wish to bring your own claim against any of the Respondents, you should seek your own legal advice about your claim and the applicable time limit prior to opting out.

If you wish to opt out of the class action, you must do so by completing a "Notice of opting out by group member" in the form shown below (Form 21 of the Court's approved forms), then returning it to the Registrar of the Federal Court of Australia at the address on the form.

IMPORTANT: the Notice must reach the Registrar by no later than 4:00pm on 24 March 2023 otherwise your opt out will not be effective.

Each group member that wishes to opt out should fill out a separate form.
